The office received an excise tax agreement for the Town of Brooks, and all three selectboard members signed and accepted.

Jacky brought the tax commitment to the selectboard and presented the mil rate options the selectboard agreed to sign the commitment at an 18.09% mil rate. Tax bills will be printed and sent out hopefully next week.

Snowplow contract the Selectmen want to remove the section previously discussed that mentions a bond as it is not required. Also, the hydrants section of the contract will be changed to include the Flat Road and the Knox Ridge Road hydrants. Mackensie will make the changes and then send it to BoJames Spaulding for final review before signing.

William Littlefield stopped by the office to let them know he is still planning on filling the graves at Sunnyside Cemetery within the next month.

Photos of salt and sand shed will be sent to MMA risk management tomorrow.

MMA sent a ballot for the executive committee the selectboard voted and signed the ballot, Mackensie will mail it back tomorrow.

Mark would like to have the CEO come to next meeting to discuss making changes to building permit process or what they can agree upon based on the ordinances.

Meeting Closed 7:40pm
